

The spoken drama returned to Sierra Madre last Friday and Saturday nights in the person of the Sierra Madre Repertoire Theater, with the Sierra Madre School Auditorium as the locale—and it was good.

The play, "One Mad Night," a hilarious mystery farce comedy by James Reach, author of the Broadway hits, "The Bat" and "The Cat and the Canary," is designed for laughter purposes and the enthusiastic audience reacted accordingly. The tempo produced by Director Glenn J. Blanchard was speedy, the players, a medley of Sierra Madre, Hastings Ranch and professional talent, displayed a versatility and ability that promises well in the productions to come. But—and this is important—the opening night audience was much too small, indicating clearly that Sierra Madreams must "grow up to their theater company." This is understandable for in recent years we have had very little histrionically except school plays and must again be "acclimated" and "conditioned" to the theater. THIS, WE BELIEVE, can be accomplished by Director Blanchard, his staff and the players who can, we dare say, produce a group of plays throughout the fall and winter season which will capture our attention and equally as important, our patronage.

"One Mad Night" is to be presented again this Friday and Saturday nights, and we bespeak large audiences for it. As to the players, Henry Bicknell, a Chicago theater veteran of pleasing personality, and Sally Boyce of Hastings Ranch, do extremely well with the leads. Mystery farce is not an easy thing to portray for unless properly handled it can border on the ridiculous. This the two leads nicely avoid, and here the fine hand of Director Blanchard is manifest. Of the Sierra Madre contingent, William W. Spargur, as the heavy; Jane B. Buchanan, as the colored maid; Nancy Mulleavy, as the housekeeper, and Anne McKnight, as the fiancée, gave capable performances. The same may be said of Barbara Campbell of Hastings Ranch, as Priscilla. STANDING OUT clearly are three delineations, that of Wing, a valet, by Rob Robinson of Sierra Madre; Danny Siletto, by Gerald Fitzgerald, and Iady Macbeth, by Mary Nims. All three portrayals were notable for their excellence. Others in the cast were: Fred Silveria as John Alden; John O'Donnell, as a crackpot villain; Paul Smith, as Dr. Dunn, and Doris Hall, as Mrs. T. Ashington Finch. That the play moved fast with proper lighting, sound effects and incidental music was due to Director Blanchard and his backstage crew including James Colbert, sound and publicity; Leon Smietana, stage manager; Dale Witala, lighting; Jack Fitch, costumes; Barbara Duffy, secretary and hostess, and Carol and Carl Pilot, production assistants. The stage setting, provided, a single room was well done.

Around the Square

By Tommy-Ann Miller

Now that the post office is moving back on Baldwin (a pebble's plop from its original site), some people are wondering when Arnold's will follow? Both establishments left Baldwin Ave. several years ago—to be side-by-side on the Boulevard's west end.

FLICKS IN STICKS. Another series of weekly nature films is being offered at Eaton Canyon Park, 1150 N. Sierra Madre Villa, on Saturday nights through Sept. 1. Plan a picnic or cook-out and go early—the pictures start at 8:30 o'clock.

THE MARK of a Mover is unmistakable: paint-streaked hair nesting atop an irresponsible brain, smudged elbows, dusty legs, unironed clothes, and an unkempt, unkempt family.

While on the subject—moving inanimates like furniture (in a daring daylight migration uphill) was a snap compared to transporting the antimate Thomas Cat who has lived his seven years in one spot and frowns on automobile travel.

Having jumped out of loving arms and through the car window on the first try, he then was thrust into a clothes hamper—a rude cat-napping which turned gentle Tom into a tiger.

"DON'T TOUCH the kitty!" commanded Father as he released Tom in the new quarters, "he might scratch!" Whereupon the Three-Year-Old began to sob, "He's crying! My kitty is!" (More sobbing).

"How come you're so sentimental?" said the Nine-Year-Old who patiently followed the hysterical cat around, trying to feed him his favorite morsels. "Hold him while I put butter on his paws!" shouted the Six-Year-Old as the cat darted under a bed. And so it went. After hours of yowling and prowling, Tom escaped at sunrise and legged it back to his deserted homestead, obviously preferring to be sold along with the goodwill and fixtures.

Note: Any suggestions on how to get Tom to relate to his new surroundings (he's been shanghaied several times but keeps running back) will be much appreciated.

ARIZONA BROCKS. Sidney and Pat Brock and toddler took off to live in Phoenix where Sid will continue in the savings and loan business. Both Brocks are outdoor lovers—Sid has sold several articles to sporting magazines. His parents (who owned Brock's Market on Baldwin until 12 years ago) have given up their egg ranch at Yucaipa and are now in the yardage and gift business there.

SHERWOOD went to San Francisco in April.

IOWANS ARRIVED last week at Hank and Pat Rose's oasis: Pat's mother, Mrs. Fred McCameron, and daughters, Cindy McCameron and Mrs. Charles Nealey, and an aunt, Mrs. Victor Lockwood. The quartet comes from Cresco, Manson and Webster City—they'll be here a fortnight.

Second Youth Dance to Be Friday Night

The second Youth Coordinating Council dance will be held at the "Creole Grotto" (Youth Hut), Sierra Vista Park, from 8 to 11:30 p.m. Friday, for Sierra Madre teenagers and their guests.

This dance promises to be a record hop. The rules compiled by the Youth Council and previously published in the SIERRA MADRE NEWS, will still apply.

The Youth Council hopes that other teenagers, who did not attend the first dance, will join the more than 80 who did attend and who plan to have more fun this time. The consensus at the last dance was that it was a real "ball" and that there should be "lots more of them."

THREE MORE DANCES are planned for the remainder of the summer—on Aug. 12 and 26, and Sept. 9. Admission is 50 cents a person for the minor expenses and to build up enough reserve to have a live band for some of the dances. Soft drinks are 10 cents each—cookies are free.

Trophies for Little League Champs

With David A. Sommers, Sierra Madre Parks and Recreation Commission director, officiating, members of the "Indians," the Little League's pennant winners, were awarded Baseball Association trophies at ceremonies conducted in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matt W. Meredith, 530 W. Montecito.

The boys receiving awards were Bruce Caswell, Ted Lighthizer, Stephen Long, Terry Ower, Malcolm Roane, Richard Schackelford, John Barkley, Jack McRoberts, Martin Mooney, Steve Otis, Geoffrey Walling, Peter Engle, Jeffrey Davidson, Kenneth Roane and Patrick Mooney.

This was the second consecutive year that the Indians, a 7-Up sponsored team, won the pennant.

Their three coaches, Les W. Barkley, Perry M. Osborn and Mr. Meredith, are to be congratulated on directing a team which had ten wins, four losses and one tied game.

S. M. Little Leaguers Win Area 4 Playoff

The Sierra Madre Little League All-Stars won the Area 4 Championship in the 1960 Little League baseball playoffs Saturday evening at Heasley Field, defeating the Hastings Ranch All-Stars, 2-1.

The Sierra Madre team now advances to the District Level Tournament at Hugo Reid playground in Arcadia where they will meet the Altadena Central Little League All-Stars, this Friday at 5:30 p.m.

Malcom Roane's home run in the second inning gave the Sierra Madre team the lead which they never relinquished. Bruce Caswell scored in the third inning on a hit by Richard Shackleford and a bobble in the Hastings Ranch outfield.

Firemen Plan Inspection of Foothill Area

Coincidental with the announcement by Chief Charles E. Brown that the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department will begin annual inspection of the Foothill Brush area this Saturday, the order closing the Chantry Flats region was rescinded.

The order closing the Chantry Flats area had been issued Sunday by Don Bortor of the Arcadia Forest Service Station, at the request of the California Highway Patrol and the State Fire Service.

U.S. Postal Authority So Says

Sierra Madre's new Post Office Building on the Case property on the west side of S. Baldwin, 325 feet south of Sierra Madre Blvd., should be completed by next March 1, according to Post Office Department Procurement Officer Richard King, following a conference Tuesday with Postmaster Charles E. Louck. Bids for the building will be advertised about Sept. 1, Inspector King, added, with letting of the contract some 45 days later. In Inspector King's opinion, this will permit construction and occupancy of the building around March 1. The type of architecture is yet to be determined.

THE POST OFFICE has a lease on the present property at 303 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. until April. The latter property has been determined insufficient in the parking accommodations for mail trucks. Recently, it was sold by its Canadian owner to Charles H. Koch, manager of the Crayhoff Corporation of Pasadena, for $30,000.

The S. Baldwin Ave. site was favored by Post Office officials over the Thomas Miller location at 98 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. The Post Office Department felt that the S. Baldwin site was more

Float Meet Crowd Urged

Ralph R. Rule of 161 S. Holdman, and City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington this week issued an appeal for a record turnout at the Tournament of Roses Float meeting scheduled for next Wednesday night, Aug. 3, at 8 o'clock at the Park House.

Rule, who was co-chairman of last year's committee which produced a float winning honors in the Tournament of Roses New Year's parade, and Bevington urge a large crowd of interested citizens to set up committees and make preliminary plans for a float that will do Sierra Madre proud.

"I am hopeful," said Rule, "that we can get some new people interested. It would be interesting to see if someone could come up with some new ideas to build up community spirit and really get the Sierra Madre people in back of the float."

Mrs. Schwartz Passes Away at Her Home Here

A Californian for 58 years and a Sierra Madre resident since 1910, Mrs. Katherine Lewis Schwartz, 87, died at her home, 287 E. Montecito, Sunday following a lengthy illness.

Eight children—six sons and two daughters—survive her. They are Thomas M. Schwartz of the Sierra Madre Hardware Co.; William H. Schwartz, Charles W. Schwartz and Samuel Schwartz, all of Sierra Madre; Dr. Charlton Schwartz of Fortuna, Calif., and Preston M. Schwartz of Tempe, Ariz.; and Mrs. William B. Wright of Deeth, Nevada, and Mrs. Lawrence Lefevre of Eaton, England.

There also are 15 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Schwartz, known favorably throughout the city for her many activities and kindnesses, was a member of the Sierra Madre Congregational Church and funeral services were from that church Tuesday at 2 p.m., with the Rev. George W. Lindsay officiating.

Interment was in Sierra Madre Cemetery beside her husband, the late Preston Schwartz, who died in 1949.

"I'm inviting Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson personally to come out here and see first-hand the gigantic size of the disaster. These tragedies have simply got to be stopped," concluded Rep. Hiestand, "and I'm sure modern science can do it."

Water Used Reported to City Council

Sierra Madreams used 712,181,829 gallons of water in the 1959-60 fiscal year ended July 1, according to a report to City Council Tuesday night by City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington and compiled by Charles E. Aske of the Public Works Department. Based on a population of 9,669, this was an average per person per day of 220.97 gallons.

The figure compares to 601,062,132 in the previous fiscal year and clearly indicates the deep concern of city officials about the future water supply, especially as a cycle of dry years prevails. Rainfall during the year was 11.68 inches, compared to 12.68 the previous year. Revenue during the year totaled $167,705.43.

COUNCIL, with a small attendance present, compared to crowded chambers in recent months, debated for more than an hour on the proposed Carter tract subdivision in the Bailey Canyon territory. Much of the argument centered about two proposed "escape routes" in addition to the proposed main road for ingress and egress.

City Attorney Charles R. Martin urged that the city obtain and retain control of these routes, to be used in emergency. The subdivision was given 60 days in which to file a permanent proposal embracing points raised by Council.

COUNCIL VOTED the purchase of a modern amplifier system for Council Chambers for a sum not exceeding $400. This is a move long advocated by the SIERRA MADRE NEWS so that the

Mrs. William Bird of Arcadia will prepare the main dinner dish, with other couples bringing additional food. Couples may bring their own preparations for cocktails if they wish.

It is felt this summer social event, which has been so successful in past years, will be an especially good opportunity for new Tri Delta alumnae to become acquainted with the group. ### Child Guidance Clinic Guild Schedules Annual Preview Tea

Pink and duobonnet invitations are in the mail for the annual Ice Follies Costume Preview Tea, sponsored by the Guild of the Pasadena Child Guidance Clinic. San Marino Womens Club, 1800 Huntington Dr., will be host for the July 28 afternoon affair.

Proceeds from the tea will be used to enable boys and girls from Red Feather agencies to attend the Ice Follies.

This annual benefit makes it possible for many emotionally disturbed young people in the area to receive needed assistance from the Pasadena Child Guidance Clinic, one of the most distinguished in the United States.

The costumes, which will be flown here from San Francisco for the occasion, will be shown by William Adrian Models who will walk through a bower of green ferns and beside a cascading waterfall.

Mrs. Leland Hawes Conley (Renie), designer for the Ice Follies and member of the Advisory Board on Costume Council of the Los Angeles County Museum, will again commentate the preview.

Hastings Hill

Hastings Ranch property owners, in the process of filing a formal complaint with the P.U.C. about inadequacies of the California Water and Telephone Company, are a little chagrined these days to find investment specialists booming the company's stock.

The Public Utilities Commission, hearing pleas of the company, that it was not making enough money, granted price increases, which raised rates considerably in Hastings. Telephone users, caught in the squeeze say they found themselves paying for more for less service than they would receive if they lived south of Foothill or west of Sierra Madre Villa, and had a Sycamore exchange.

For example, one investment company heralds:

"Since 1954 operating revenues of California Water & Telephone Co. have increased 133.7 per cent, while net income has risen by 123.8 per cent—a record that surpasses many widely publicized so-called growth industrial issues."

"Recent rate increases, plus the service areas' continuing expansion indicate higher revenues and earnings for the current fiscal year."

Last year investors' stock in California yielded 4.6 per cent, compared to 3.8 on American Tel. and Tel. and 3 per cent on General.

"Common stock dividends have been paid every year since 1936. The dividend rate was recently increased from 30 cents to 32 cents a quarter or $1.38 per share," according to the report.

These figures reflect the rate increase granted the company as of Feb. 16, 1959, bringing in some $750,000 of additional revenue, but do not reflect the April 1 additional increase to add more than $1,000,000.

According to the broker, "This new rate could increase earnings on a 12-month basis by at least 25 cents per share."

WELL, the people of Hastings Ranch have indicated, practically to a man, they would like to be served by another company, who they say gives cheaper and better service. They thus formed the Hastings Ranch Telephone Improvement Association, and say they plan to seek relief from their plight of living in Pasadena, yet being served by a out-of-town firm at a higher rate than other Pasadenans are paying.

FOR THOSE of us living near the mountains, the tapering off of the forest fires has been a great relief. Not only did they do lots of damage but they caused many of the children on the hill to be cheated out of their time at camp. Poor Midge Rowley had had her suitcase packed for weeks with the prospect of taking off last Monday for a week at camp. However, the children were not allowed to go into the area so she will have to wait until the 8th of next month to get all healthy on the mountain air.

JULIE AND BOB Bremer and their two youngsters, Randy and Pam, arrived home last weekend from a 7-week motor trip across the United States. Judging from reports, they had a marvelous time and visited all the points of interest between the Pacific and Atlantic Oceans. While on the east coast they visited Bob's family in New York and Julie's, in Connecticut. Everything went according to schedule EXCEPT the family had planned to camp their way across the nation and back again, but "Mama," who had never camped before, tossed in the towel after the fifth night and the camping equipment did not see the "light of day" for the duration of the trip.

RESIDENTS on the hill were saddened last week when word was revealed Gene Sielen had died at White Memorial Hospital. Both he and Beverly, through their unselfishness to others and friendliness, had won a place of deep affection and respect among their neighbors. Though a very busy man, Gene found time to work with Boys Clubs and Little League, or whatever other worthwhile cause came along. Needless to say, he will be missed for many a day by those who knew and loved him.

DDD is on the way

California Water & Telephone Company subscribers in the Sierra Madre area having ELgin prefixes can look forward to a new service effective in late August, this year.

This new service is DIRECT DISTANCE DIALING which will make it possible for subscribers to dial their own long distance calls without the assistance of a Long Distance Operator.

The United States and Canada have been divided into telephone numbering areas, called "Area Codes."

By dialing an "Area Code" and then the desired party's listed telephone number, it will be possible for a subscriber to talk with friends and relatives in thousands of cities and communities throughout the United States.

Long Distance Operators will still handle person-to-person calls and other calls of a special nature.

D.D.D. calls will be automatically recorded and charged at the station-to-station long distance rate. The billing details of a call will be electronically recorded, and included with each subscriber's telephone bill at the end of the billing period.

Instruction booklets will be mailed to subscribers at the time the service is activated.

VILLA VIEWS

By Toni Maurin
SY. 7-9634

I said last week this year's election was going to be a hot campaign. What I didn't realize was just how hot, and how fast the controversy would begin.

I want to declare myself here and now as a regular voter. I feel it is my sacred duty to get to the polls. I will listen to both parties, and I will make up my OWN mind as to MY vote.

I will not argue with anyone as I cherish my friends and it is a widely known fact that you never win a vote by arguing. Some of my best friends are Republicans. That is, those best friends who are not Democrats.

I also feel that it is my duty as well as the duty of every thinking voter to support the party of my choice financially. Campaigns cannot be run on promises alone and your dollar may allow your candidate to be heard by more people.

There, if we quit griping and start doing we might just have a little less to fear from Communistic infiltration!

MRS. ROBERT C. HENKER of Old Grove Rd. had the most clever birthday anniversary party for her husband last Friday night. The theme of the party all centered around the Presidential campaign and the invitations were in keeping with that idea.

Guests were asked to bring campaign contributions which turned out to be bag gifts for the honoree who, of course, was in nomination for president.

She had old campaign posters stuck around wherever you happened to turn. Some of them dated "way back." There was red, white and blue bunting hung all over to complete the effect. The guests all registered in upon arrival and received their campaign buttons. There was a cocktail caucus followed by a $100-a-plate dinner which was bar-b-que'd fresh trout. This was followed by the political speeches and games.

Everyone had a wonderful time and Mrs. Henker's planning proved to be well worth the time invested. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Williams, Dan Rogers, Ben Rogers, William Huge and Tom Horn.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT W. ANDERSON have moved into their new home recently purchased from the Frank Mulberry at 3320 Fairpoint Ave. Mr. Mulberry was transferred to Morocco and subsequently to London where Mrs. Mulberry will join him.

The Andersons have three lovely daughters — Nancy, 7½; Laurie, 5½, and Cynthia, 3½. Mr. Anderson is an attorney with the firm of Stone, Moran and Anderson of Pasadena.

They both enjoy sports as a hobby but are planning to forego the extra-curricular in favor of establishing a landscaped garden.

MRS. ROY A. HOFFMAN of Cricklewood Path has had what I call a busy week and it promises to continue for several more days.

Firstly, on Tuesday she had a coffee klatch to introduce the two newest members of the neighborhood to the rest of their neighbors. The newcomers are Mrs. Leonard Marangi of Kinneola Canyon Rd., and Mrs. John Adams, who will soon move into their Cricklewood Path home.

The other guests were Mesdames Les Huhn, Ken Norwood, John Gates, Fred Tangeman, Arthur Cox, Gustave Krause, Robert Gibson, R. Thomson, George Michaelis, Claron Oakley, Warren Desper, Roger Fetter, Ken Caoate and Robert Hinchliff.

On Wednesday Mrs. Hoffman's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Sapp, arrived for a week's visit from Tallahassee, Fla.

Also arriving from Tokyo, Japan, were Mr. and Mrs. James Carroll, with their four children. The Carrolls are staying at Disneyland Hotel and all activities will be shuttled back and forth between here and there.

AMONG THE newcomers on the Kinneola side are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Desper of 2240 Kinneola Canyon Rd. Although they have been in their home for several months they are just now beginning to feel settled.

They have five children—Warren Jr., 20 years old, is a student at PCC, along with his 18-year-old sister Deborah, Daniel, 16, is a student at PHS; Michael, 14, attends Marshall, and Patrick is going into the 8th grade at Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Farewell Party Fetes P. E. Adames

Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Bergh, 1405 Davenport, were hosts last Sunday evening at a dinner party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Adames, neighbors, who have sold their home and moved yesterday to the Ball Hall Apartments in Sierra Madre.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. Neal Rowley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stewart.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Rowley.

Hastings Ranch Section, Needlework Guild of America, will meet today in the home of Mrs. Victor E. Caffee, 1240 Coronet. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Jack Anderson and Mrs. Roland Kemp.

According to Mrs. Alpheus L. Pruitt, director, and her assistants, Mrs. Max Goudge and Mrs. Warren Cline, the day's activities will include a work period, swim and luncheon.

Shop Talk You'll Like To Peruse

By Lisa Churchill

Have you seen the gorgeous Thunderbird at Carl Hansen's Ford Agency? The new color intrigues me. Is it blue, turquoise, or aqua? Reminds me of my first new car—Of course it was a Ford—d. That too was a difficult color to determine in my proud eyes it was green, the dealer (sorry it wasn't Carl Hansen, but I didn't know him then) called it blue, and my friends, obviously color-blind, called it gray.

It didn't really matter—to me it was a thing of beauty and a joy for many years. I drove it more than 125,000 miles with practically no problems other than normal servicing, except for one slight contretemps at the beginning of our first long trip.

The car was ordered as soon after the end of World War II as I could persuade a dealer to accept the order. After waiting 13 months for delivery, it came in all its shining glory and after a reasonable breaking in period, we reached the start of a long delayed but eagerly anticipated cross country trip.

Every detail was carefully planned. We would leave home from work on Friday evening, pack the car, have an early dinner, sleep for a few hours, then leave at 2 a.m. in order to cross the next day.

THE CAR was serviced, packed, everything went like clock work. We walked out of the back door at exactly five minutes of 2. I opened the little notebook which was to be the log of our journey, recorded the mileage, the time, turned on the ignition key, stepped on the starter, and—nothing happened.

In those days phones were as difficult to get as cars. The people living upstairs in the four unit apartment house in which we lived had a phone.

Since we had permission to use it at any time and since they were trusting souls who never locked a door, I topped up stairs and called the all-night garage.

They sent a wrecker which stuck way up our narrow driveway and succeeded in walking all the neighbors. Another wrecker arrived to pull the first one out, rescued us and towed us to the garage where leisurely mechanics finally found a broken starter spring. Three hours and two nervous prostrations later, we started for the East.

But as I said earlier, with this memorable exception, my ten years experience with our blue-green-gray Ford was a pleasant decade. When Henry built the Ford, he made a memorable contribution to the American civilization. Buy yours at Carl Hansen's—you'll be glad you did.

IF RALPH AND ANN of Ralph's Shoe Store look as if they too are having nervous prostrations this week, it is probably not due to a broken starter spring. They are busily getting ready for their annual GIGANTIC summer sale. You bargain hunters (and who isn't) should plan to get up early on the day the sale starts. Watch this paper for full details.

SAW A NOTICE in this paper that the Harry Lange's have just returned from a trip to Europe. I am looking forward to meeting Mr. Lange in person. He doesn't know it, but thanks to the courtesy of Alexander Graham Bell, we are old acquaintances.

For many years, a long time ago, I used to handle his real estate Classified Advertising when I worked for the Los Angeles Times. We held hundreds of weekly telephone conferences concerning advertising.

If I remember correctly, at that time Mr. Lange had his office on Kersting Court, presently adjacent to this newspaper office. It will be pleasant to have an opportunity to say "Howdy" in person.

Fugitive Parrot Talks Lots to Hospital Folk

An escaped green and yellow parrot, "Duke," flapping through the trees and stopping now and then to make some hilarious, though not profane remarks, including cries of "Oh, Mom," created a furor early this week in one section of Sierra Madre.

Owned by the Bridge family at 484 Mariposa, "Duke" last Sunday flew as far as the Sierra Madre Medical Center where, perched aloft, he edified patients, doctors and nurses with his bird lingo. On Monday, he was located high up in a nearby tree, but firemen, armed with a ladder, were unable to recapture him.

"Duke" only giggled, cried "Oh, Mom," and flew to another tree. Dr. Norman P. Johnson, anxious that the bird-talker be returned to his owners, reported the situation to the police.

"Duke" escaped when someone left his cage open and also the living room door.

Mrs. Olsen, Pioneer of S.M., Dies

Mrs. Mathilda Olsen, pioneer Sierra Madre resident, whose husband was the first subscriber to the SIERRA MADRE NEWS in 1906, passed away July 25 at the Washington Convalescent Hospital, Pasadena, following a long illness. For 53 years the family resided at 45 Suffolk, later moving to 57 Suffolk.

Mrs. Olsen was born in Veldre, Norway, in 1875, one of ten children. She came to North Dakota with her family in 1887. On a visit to Sierra Madre in 1899 she met and married Andrew Olsen. Mr. Olsen was engaged in the feed and fuel business in Sierra Madre until he retired.

Mrs. Olsen was preceded in death by her husband in 1953 and her son, William Lewis Olsen, in 1954. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Clarence Wilson; a granddaughter, Mrs. Donald W. Odell of Pasadena; a grandson, David Olsen of San Marino; two great-grandchildren, Catherine Ann and William Lewis Odell, and a sister, Mrs. Karen Bjugstad of North Dakota.

Mrs. Olsen was a member of the Bethany Church of Sierra Madre. Services were held at Ives and Warren, Pasadena, on July 28, 1960. Interment in Mountain View Cemetery.

Parks Named Behind To Hiestand Committee

Frank R. Parks of 250 S. Mountain Trail, Sierra Madre, has been appointed to the Reelect Congressmen Hiestand Committee as community chairman for the Sierra Madre area, is announced by Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand (R-21st District).

The Planning Commission chairman and president of the Sierra Madre Republican Club is in the real estate and insurance business in Azusa.

He also has headed the Azusa Lions Club, the Sierra Madre 1959 Red Cross Fund drive and the Young Builders Council of Southern California. He is past commander of American Legion Post 488.

"ECK" is the type of representative everyone hopes for in Congress," Parks said of the representative he is supporting. "His name appearing on Hoffa's black list is sufficient reason for any intelligent person to work for Rep. Hiestand's reelection."

Parks and his wife, Marie, are the parents of two daughters and two sons.

Council Meeting

(Continued From Page 1) public may hear the councilmanic deliberations. Once amplifier will be placed so that citizens addressing the Council may be plainly heard.

When the proposed lot split requested by Frank R. Parks on his property at 155 Olivera Lane, a proposal approved by the Planning Commission, came up, Councilman Milton R. Emerson led a fight to adhere to a standard policy as per city law, that such easements not be granted.

In the end, Councilman Emerson won his point and obtained a decision to further investigate the situation, with a report due at the Aug. 23 meeting.

The Council approved the Mountain Trail, Baldwin and Esperanza sewer assessment districts and bids will be called for on Aug. 23.

THE FIRE HAZARD ordinance was formally adopted, and discussion on the proposed new street lighting system was held up pending further investigation.

Air-conditioning of the Public Library would cost between $8,000 and $9,000, it was estimated. Costs of engineering are an added factor and decision was delayed pending further investigation of total costs. Present ventilating ducts are inadequate for an air-conditioning system.

Behind The Scenes In Business

By Reynolds Knight

NEW YORK—The economic experts don't seem to be able to agree at the midway point of the first year, on what will happen during the rest of the hoped-to-be soaring '60s, despite some current good omens in the field of personal income, employment and retail sales.

Opinions of economic prognosticators who appeared before the directors of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce recently ranged from highly optimistic to downright gloomy; some took a middle-of-the-road course.

The most optimistic was a sales official of a leading steel company. Despite the recent strikes, he foresees more support from the automobile industry during the second half, and sustained capital spending for plant modernization.

The pessimist in the crowd was from the investment banking field. Emphasizing that he was speaking for himself, he referred to a lag in new orders received by manufacturers as one specific weak sign; he also said most other leading indicators look bad.

A consulting economist expressed optimism that easing credit terms would bolster the construction of residential housing in the second half, so that at least 1.3 million new houses would be built this year. This would be more than the first-half rate would indicate. Aircraft and missile-makers, and their suppliers, heavily dependent on government contracts, will see little change in the next three years, one expert in this field opined.

THINGS TO COME—A new zipper which boasts a no-snag feature has been designed for the home sewer. It has grooves within the slider that push the material aside, preventing those annoying snags.

the property and owner, and not necessarily a charge against the person who signs for the water—such as a tenant or purchaser of the property. The city also allows water to be turned off and kept off until all delinquent charges are paid.

City Attorney Martin reports this has been challenged and, in his opinion, probably would not hold up in court. A move to have the property owner make no deposit but be responsible for losses is contemplated.

Gradual reduction in franchise payments made the city by the Southern California Edison Company came up for discussion. Deliberations with company officials will ensue.

Robert Dodge Sells

Continued from page 1 and branch office operation, the latter covering most of the United States, thousands of the juicers have been sold in all 50 of the states and in foreign lands, their fame for sturdy efficiency and product gaining through the years. Widespread advertising campaigns were a factor in this successful merchandising.

Mr. and Mrs. Dodge will continue to reside at 11 E. Orange Grove Ave., but plan extensive travel in the months to come. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson live at 3715 Landfair, Hastings Ranch. While new executives will man the Sierra Madre offices, the branch operatives throughout the country will remain unchanged.

Second Place Stake in Game

Paradoxically second place is at stake in a Babe Ruth League game to be played at the Sierra Mesa grounds Thursday (today) at 5:30 p.m. between the pennant winning Cardinals and Giants who are tied with the White Sox for second place. It is an incomplete game between the Cardinals and Giants. If the Giants win they will clinch second place. If they lost, they will have to play the White Sox for second spot.

Second Youth Dance

Continued from page 1 ing, the Youth Council elected a nominating committee to prepare a slate of new officers to replace those outgoing officers whose terms were upon July 1. Members of this committee are Mary Ann Beardshear, Pam Valois, Tal Chase, Sumner Nash and Kristin Brown.

Membership in the Youth Council, which is sponsored by the Sierra Madre Coordinating Council, is open to all Sierra Madre seventh to 14th graders. Watch the Sierra Madre News for announcement of the next regular meeting on the first Wednesday in September.

Incidentally, Senator Thomas H. Kuchel has been advised by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield that a new Post Office also will be constructed in Arcadia.

Forest Fires

The Foothill Brush area inspection will be done in cooperation with the U.S. Forest Service and both agencies will be represented on the inspection teams. The inspectors will be looking particularly for brush and weeds growing too close to houses and other buildings; leaves and weeds in abundance about yards and on roofs, fallen trees and other dead growth.

Are We 'The Answerers?'

The political conventions, with their especial appeal to America's young citizens, are past tense. But there are ahead the months of political campaigning in the wide-spread American hustings, and with it all the customary political maneuvering by Messrs. Nixon and Kennedy.

Let the candidates stage their political whoopla, but in the interest of choosing the best possible man, let every loyal American take serious counsel with himself—an inventory of his own Americansim—of the imperative necessity to rededicate ourselves to the spirit of freedom of which we are the pilot light to a strife-torn world, and to determine within ourselves if we possess the essential willingness to make the sacrifices now needed to protect and to spread that freedom.

Only if we can get back on the Highway of Freedom can we quell the clouds of a tyrannical Communism and its perils of rockets and international missile penetration which shadow today's world. Only through this can we reassert our world leadership, jostled into second place by a covetous Soviet Russia and its arrogant Khrushchev, playing atheistic God with his missiles and careless disregard of the truth.

THIS IS a campaign which should be divorced of the customary political verbiage—the times are too sober for that. The months ahead should be filled with "designs for freedom's victory," rather than political recriminations and shadow-boxing by the two candidates at a time when sober thinking and contemplation in depth by the American people is mandatory.

Looking out from Monticello in 1821, Thomas Jefferson wrote to John Adams in Massachusetts that "I shall not die without the hope that light and liberty are on steady advance . . . The flames kindled on the Fourth of July, 1776, have spread over too much of the globe to be extinguished by the feeble engines of despotism—on the contrary, they will consume these engines and all who work them."

When Jefferson died—on the same day in 1826 as Adams, and fittingly on the Fourth of July, he carried this hope to his tomb: that the truths of the American Proposition were so "self-evident" as to fire the hearts of all men and to strike down tyranny everywhere. Now, 134 years later, we must ask ourselves, and ponder the question deeply, whether Jefferson, the philosopher of freedom, was a prophet or merely an optimist.

For we are joined in a death grapple with the cancer called Communism—with the despotism of a new Dark Age enshrouding us. We of this generation have seen civilization revert into a savagery unprecedented in world history—hundreds of thousands of humans burned in ovens at the will of a mad dictator, Hitler; great cities wasted, and almost two-thirds of mankind enslaved by the prophets of a brutalizing doctrine spread by Lenin, Stalin, Khrushchev and their self-centered followers.

To the American people, having spent tens of thousands of lives and untold billions of money to put down two European tyrannies, the years have brought only the crushing and seemingly endless burden of cold wars, not to mention the hot war in Korea which took another 30,000 American lives and the wounding of 100,000 more.

THIS APPALLING record makes the 18th Century optimism of Jefferson seem far away indeed. Yet we have been faithful enough to the American Proposition to win this complacent in the London Times: "No nation has ever come into the possession of such powers for good or ill, for freedom or tyranny, for friendship or enmity among the peoples of the world . . . And no nation has used those powers, by and large, with greater vision, restraint, responsibility and courage."

Nevertheless, the question arises, an utmost serious question, have we become too careless of our Americansim, too selfish in our personal self-centeredness, too disregardful of the privileges—and glory—of our freedom? Have we become too soft in body and mind, too complacent, too careless while the Russians have hardened in body and spirit? Are we remembering that it is the nature of free men to struggle and in their faith to be forever true, without deviation, to our inherent concepts of freedom?

Are we facing our today's intense trials with the faith required to breach the Red Kremlin's walls, to insure the ultimate victory for the American Proposition—when Jefferson's self-evident concepts will have swept tyranny from all the lands in the world, including Communist Russia itself?

Are we ready for a bold new thinking in defense of our foreign policy—bold new scientific thinking and achievement, bold new personal thinking—even an unselfish austerity for freedom's cause?

THIS IS THE DEBT we owe our honored dead of our wars. This is the debt we owe our own and our future generations. This is the tocsin which today's young Americans must sound with vigor, intelligence and enthusiasm, plus courage. There is no better time to consider all this—soberly as we should—at this time of Presidential campaign.

If we do these things—and everyone of us should—paraphrasing one of Carl Sandberg's new verses, we can say, justly so:

"Americans the stumblers and finders, go on,
Americans the dreamers of deep dreams,
Americans the shapers and makers,
Americans the answerers."

For we alone can be the answerers to the insistent calls for freedom from the eager millions, heart-hungry for freedom, the world over.

This is our heritage, our destiny, our mission and our consecrated duty—for them, for ourselves. Will we measure up to it?

Our Beautiful Vacation Trails

Lee Shippey Says . . . What Do You Think?

Seems to me the way our press radio and television cover national political conventions is just additional evidence of our habitual wastefulness. Instead of coverage they give us smotherage.

NATIONAL conventions always start with promises to preserve dignity and limit the time wasted on speeches to which no one listens and spontaneous demonstrations which have been planned and rehearsed. And by the third day they have so completely shattered those promises that they make us skeptical of all their other promises.

BUT, with our population explosion already crowding us for living space, maybe that is a good thing. If all the platform promises of both parties were fulfilled there might be a vast migration to our country of angels from Heaven seeking a better place.

STUDENTS of semantics who watch the weird antics of demonstrators at political conventions must wonder, sometimes, where the word "conventional" came from.

IT SEEMS to me television is taking all the glamour and majesty out of conventions. I attended my first convention in a spirit of awe and reverence, conscious of the privilege of watching history in the making.

There were no microphones then, and the audience sat hushed, straining to catch the words uttered by the men we thought of as giants.

But now we see and hear a speaker introduced on our television screens, and before he has spoken two minutes he may be switched off so we may hear a comment from someone else, or a commercial.

The reporters keep us informed of deals that are being made and "surprises" about to be sprung. It's a rare moment when there isn't a buzz of conversation in the balconies and we cannot see some off-stage knot of politicians busily plotting.

I HAVE often quoted my friend, Will Rogers, "I don't belong to any organized political party—I'm a Democrat". But it looks to me as if, after all these years, Jack Kennedy may succeed in organizing the Democratic Party.

He has an impressive record for getting things done. Instead of soft-pedaling his religion and his stand on civil rights, he told the world to in all political considerations his oath to uphold the Constitution will come first, as it did when he risked his life for his country and throughout his career in Congress.

After all, in this century Communism is the only political system which has had reason to fear Catholicism.

It took a real leader to get Johnson to accept the vice-presidential nomination. I began this paragraph by reminding you I'm a Democrat, so any who object may turn to Ed Herwig or Eck Hiestand for other views. But I think that such a fighter and leader as Jack Kennedy will be mighty hard to beat.

OUT OF THE COBWEBS

41 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Aug. 1, 1919—Miss Grace Nuetzel was agreeably and completely surprised at a regular meeting of the Eleven and One Club at the home of Miss Verna Triple Wednesday evening, when the other members of the club led her into an adjoining room which was decorated with pink hearts and kewpies and "showered" her with many beautiful and useful gifts in honor of her approaching marriage. Other guests besides club members were Mrs. H. Nuetzel, Mrs. Fred Nuetzel and Mrs. W. P. Galey.

George Humphries is driving a new Ford coupe, the first of the late models with factory-equipped self-starter to be delivered here by the agent, Milton Steinberger.

Lieutenant Charles Camp who recently returned to this country from service in France, reached home Wednesday and another family is made happy.

20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, July 26, 1940—Permits for erection of three new dwellings were issued during the week, one to Ed V. Ryan, assistant secretary of State Compensation Insurance, another to the Rev. M. D. Kneeland, former Episcopal rector in Sierra Madre, and a third to Walter Thurber, financial director of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

At the July 18 meeting of the Sierra Madre American League, Post 297, Vincent Hoege was named commander. First vice commander is H. C. Gabriel; second vice commander, Gordon Felts; finance officer, Henry Olsen; historian, W. L. Stanton; sergeant-at-arms, Ed De Long; chaplain, P. B. Linville. The executive committee members are Lloyd B. Welch, William T. Clement, James O'Grady, Arthur Embree, James Irvine and Russell Lovejoy.

Rudy Hartman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hartman, made his first solo flight at the Alhambra Airport Sunday, following eight hours of instruction in connection with the CAA course he is taking at Pasadena Junior College.

10 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, July 27, 1950—Frances Eakin who in the past has led several campaigns to benefit Sierra Madre, this week offers another good idea. He proposes "Smile Week" for residents. A civic organization would sponsor "Smile Week" and would supervise the distribution of lapel tags to be worn by citizens. The tags might say "I'm Smiling, Are You?"

Mayor William A. Kenney this week called a meeting of citizens to help organize a City Disaster Council. The meeting will be held Friday evening, July 28 at 8 o'clock in the City Hall Council Chambers. From the meeting is expected to come Sierra Madre's answer to alarming international developments and the threat of war.

Mr. and Mrs. William Underwood of 770 Canyon Crest Dr., leave this weekend for a two week's fishing and touring in Rogue River, Oregon. Mrs. Underwood (Dottie) is advertising manager of the News.

5 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, July 21, 1955—The many Sierra Madreans acquainted with Elmer Brown Mason will be saddened to learn that he died Tuesday at his home in La Jolla after a lengthy illness. Mason, who resided in Sierra Madre until about five years ago, is survived by his widow, Edith Dunne Mason. A noted collector of first editions, Mason also was a representative for American periodicals in Paris after World War I.

David Darbyshire, 127 E. Highland Ave., was the winner of the Elgin watch given away at the concert in the park Friday evening. Elaine Parks, Sierra Madre's Wistaria queen, drew the winning ticket, with Judge John C. Mead, Colonel Walter Thurber and Ralph (Pappy) Welsh as judges.

Friends of the C. W. Jones will be sorry to learn Mrs. Jones is in Sierra Madre Hospital for treatment of a broken hip which she suffered last Saturday morning when she tripped over a hose in the yard. Their daughter, Mrs. Hudson Proctor of Le Mesa, came to Sierra Madre to be with her parents.

Holy Ground Prayer Clinic Leader Topic

The Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, is proud to present as guest speaker Dr. William R. Parker, professor of the Speech Clinic at the University of Redlands, on Sunday at 11 a.m. His topic will be "Holy Ground."

Dr. Parker has received wide acclaim for his book, "Prayer Can Change Your Life," in which he relates a personal experience where prayer, after all else failed, enabled him to overcome a serious challenge to his well-being.

Following his own triumph, Dr. Parker, with the aid of men and women from all walks of life, conducted experiments in applying methods of modern psychology to the study of prayer.

From this study developed prayer clinics through which the lives of thousands of people have been changed to joyous, productive living.

You too can realize this blessing of successful living through the application of a few simple rules of prayer.

OTHER Sunday activities are the Junior Church which offers graded classes from pre-school through junior high at 11 a.m., and the Youth Activity at 7 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hendricks are superintendents of the Junior Church and the Youth Activity is directed by Mrs. Suzanne Huntsinger.

New members will be received into the church at the 11 a.m. worship service on Sunday, Aug. 7.

Mrs. Seiling, Once Singing Star, Is Dead

In her hey-day a light opera and concert singer of world renown, Mrs. Louise Gunning Seiling, 82, whose home at 500 N. Adams, Sierra Madre, was a mecca for music lovers, died Sunday in Sierra Madre Hospital.

For many years, Mrs. Seiling was under contract to the Shuberts, New York theatrical producers and under their banner sang in many of the time's top light operas; she also sang in concert throughout this country and Europe.

She had been a resident of California for 54 years, living in Sierra Madre for more than 50 years. Mrs. Seiling was born in New Jersey. Her father was a Baptist minister, and her husband, the late Oskar Seiling, a concert violinist and professor of music, died in 1938.

Surviving are a son, Joseph Seiling, and nephews in the East. Graveside services were Thursday, with the Rev. George W. Lindsay, Congregational Church, officiating, with burial in Sierra Madre Cemetery.

New S. M. Directory Boasts Many Unusual Facts About This City and Its People

Sierra Madre's new city directory, just issued, contains a lot of interesting and unusual facts.

Preliminarily to the 1960 fund campaign, the Sierra Madre Community Chest has gone to bat and from the directory gleaned a lot of unique information. Here they are:

There are 3,300 families listed. (This may mean any number from one up. Might be interesting to know which family is the largest and how large!)

There are 133 businesses and the same number of residences in the central district of Sierra Madre (Sierra Madre Blvd., Baldwin, Montecito Aves., and Kersting Court).

Eighteen businesses are listed this year that were not here last year. And five physicians.

THERE ARE 885 names listed that were not at the same address last year. This does not mean all new names, however, as many Sierra Madreans move to a different address but still stay in our fair city.

There are 165 new addresses, but this does not mean that number of buildings, as some are new apartments in former buildings and many are apartments of the same new building (as many as 14 in one case).

There are four new street names, one a name change, three new streets.

IF YOU think you know your own home town of Sierra Madre, try answering these:

1—What street has been extended for the building of seven new homes?

2—Name three short streets and three sections of longer streets from which no resident has moved this last year.

3—What north and south street has odd numbers on the east side? (Most east sides are even numbers.)

4—Name a street that has only three former residents at same address, two new names in formerly built houses, and 14 new families in 14 new houses.

5—What street name has been changed? To what new name?

6—Name three new streets.

7—Name two streets that have each one house only.

8—What street is listed in the 1960 directory but has no house thereon?

THE ANSWERS

- 8—Fern Glen Trail.
  - 7—Lupin Trail, Yucca Lane.
  - 6—Catalina Terrace, Wilshire Way, Auburn Meadows Lane.
  - 5—Wilcox Road to Sierra.
  - 4—Lillian Dr.
  - 3—Wilson Ave.
  - 2—Orange Grove.
  - 1—From No. 98 to Or.
- West to Canyon and Park Grove between Baldwin Ave., Merrill Ave., Orange Ave., and Coburn Boulevard.
- 1—Foot Hill Ave. (not listed)

Fifty Enjoy Clark Allen Guitar Tunes

By Mrs. Florence Todd

Another cultural milestone for Sierra Madre was reached Tuesday, July 19, when we enjoyed the guitar at its best, performed by one of the best folklore exponents, Clark Allen.

For more than two hours an audience of 50 was held spellbound at the Bill Spargur Studios by the pulsating Flamenco rhythms and songs in their varied forms, from the traditional to the contemporary.

Explaining as he exemplified, Mr. Allen held our interest untiringly as he alternated historical and geographical data with biographic narrative and background to the passionate moving Gypsy music.

And the charm of the performer's voice was enhanced by the authenticity of style; this we can say after having listened to Peninsular Spanish singers in Mexico.

CLARK ALLEN recently toured he country with Bette Davis and Gary Merrill presenting "The World of Carl Sandburg." He is engaged to continue in that show when it opens on Broadway, Sept. 15.

Bill Spargur is making an important contribution to the musical life of our cultural milieu by initiating this series of recitals. Fortunately we will again have the opportunity of listening to Clark Allen when he returns on Aug. 1, reinforced by Margarita, his wife, and her dancing.

We already are anticipating the thrill such combined artistry can give us. Watch for announcements at Bill Spargur's Guitar Center.

Atop this he places a plastic coat which protects the painting from dust and dirt. The paintings exhibited, three of them animals—cats, tiger and the fourth a matador in the bullring—
